LEE T. ROSS GIVEN ARMY PROMOTION

Camp Lewis, Oct. 20, 1917.
Dear Father and Mother:—

Everything is so much better than I ever expected and we are all getting along fine. We were first assigned to companies and then to battalions and then sent to be vaccinated. My arm is not a bit sore. After we returned to barracks I thought I would drop you a postal and while writing it the fellows were set to cleaning up and when I went outside they assigned me to kitchen police. It was a good experience but not much fun, but I got away with it all right. After lunch they started to drill, and Ray, Scott and I were each appointed corporals. It was sure a piece of good luck right at the start, and the three of us have been studying up ever since. I have seen very good fellows under me, especially two of them that hail from Stockton.

Y. M. C. A. here is sure fine and is doing a wonderful work for the fellows. I am sure glad I gave them the small bit I did when they took up the collection in Redwood.

The weather here has been fine so far, not a bit of rain, and the sun shining, though it is much colder than at home.

The camp is built on very gravelly soil that looks as if it would soak up the water very fast. The camp is immense. I don't know how many miles the main street is but it must be four or five, and we are about in the middle. The barracks are quite different from the ones at Camp Fremont. Each building is two stories about 75x150 and one-half of the downstairs is used for the kitchen and dining room. The bunks are pretty near together, but each fellow has everything for himself and separate from the others. Adjoining the main building are the wash rooms, toilets and showers, with plenty of hot water.

Will write again when I get a chance but just now want to hold my corporal's job.

Will repeat my address: Company 74, 166th Depot Brigade, Lewis Branch, Tacoma, Washington. With love from your son,
LEE T. ROSS.

SEQUOIA-HIGH LOSES TO SAN JOSE RUGBY ON FLUKE

San Jose defeated Sequoia in a fiercely contested game at Rugby, on the Sequoia field Wednesday afternoon by the score of 3 to 0.

San Jose's score came near the middle of the first half, when San Jose secured the ball in ruck and scrambled over for a try. Many spectators considered that a fluke and the remainder of the game seemed to prove it. Sequoia's goal was never in danger again the entire last half being played on San Jose's side of the field.

Sequoia lost two good chances to tie the score in the second half when after a long kick by Murray the San Jose fullback fumbled the ball and threw the ball to touch on his own 5 yard line. On the line out, DeGroot was unable to get over being marked by three San Jose men. Again later in the half Kreiss failed to go over for the same reason.

The game was played among the forwards almost entirely. Coach Adams believed his forwards were stronger than San Jose's and instructed them to play accordingly, and with an even break of luck would have at least tied the score.

When you consider that San Jose has 1400 students and Sequoia 120 students the showing of Sequoia is remarkable and Mr. Adams receives the congratulations of all his competitors on the improvement of the team from year to year.

To Sequoia, Helsel, DeGroot, and Lalonde were conspicuous among the forwards and Haydock, the heady little half back started, with his long accurate "boots" to touch he gained many yards for Sequoia. Murray deserves notice for his speed at wing, and also for his kicking. V. Kreiss at first five stopped several rushes by accurate hard tackling. Every member played hard and with plenty of fight, that made the big crowd glad they came to the game.

Next Tuesday, November 30th, San Mateo comes here for a game.

Following is the line-up in the San Jose game: Front rank, Ross and O'Connell; second rank, Boulware, Kreiss, Talmadge, Watson; lock, Helsel; Breakwaters, DeGroot and Hyndfeldt; Wing forward, Lalonde, Back field, Haydock, Kreiss, Green, Walsh, A. Lawler, Murray and Rockwell.

OLD TIME FRIENDS GIVE KINNE BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Ex-Sheriff W. H. Kinne was agreeably surprised at his home on Phelps street last Saturday evening when a number of friends gathered to help celebrate the eighty-first anniversary of his birth. Mr. Kinne first saw the light in Canada 81 years ago. He came to California at an early age and for many years engaged in the milk business at his ranch at what is now known as Daly City. After his election as sheriff he came to reside in Redwood City and has lived here ever since. He came here in the eighties.

The birthday event was duly celebrated by Mr. Kinne and his friends, who had assembled to wish him many more years of happiness. Games were played, cards indulged in and social converse. Among those present were: John MacBain, John F. Johnston, M. Sheehan, Carl Muller, Asa Hull, Guy P. Hall, Alie John, John Steinberger, Ernest Werder, A. D. Walsh, H. W. Lampkin, W. H. Kinne, P. P. Chabrelain, Joseph Dickey, D. P. Flynn and Thomas Flynn.

NEW OWNERS TAKE CHARGE OF OLD LAUNDRY BUSINESS

The Home laundry changed hands this week. A. D. Cooke and John A. Cellia, experienced laundry men of San Francisco taking over the big plant on Main street. Hereafter the laundry will be known as the Crystal laundry. The new proprietors are about to install modern machinery costing $5,000 so that the plant will be one of the most efficient and up-to-date on the peninsula. The concern has a weekly pay roll of $500 but this is to be increased to $800 shortly when the plant will be running at full capacity. A large volume of business is being done by the concern at the present time and it is the intention of Messrs. Cooke and Cellia to greatly increase the output of the plant. New work from Camp Fremont and Menlo Park has necessitated enlarging all departments.

Every detail is watched by Mr. Cooke, one of the best known business men of San Francisco. Under his wise management the business of the institution is certain to prosper and grow.

Liberty Loan Meeting Proves Loyalty of Redwood's Citizens

That Redwood City is fully imbued with a spirit of patriotism and stands ready at any time to respond to the call of the Nation, either in men or money, was once more amply demonstrated Wednesday evening, when in response to the call of President Wilson for the holding of Second Liberty Loan demonstrations throughout the land, the Sequoia theatre was packed to its doors by an enthusiastic assembly.

Not only was the gathering a large one, composed of people of every walk of life, but every move was one of enthusiasm, every act one of patriotism. From the very outset it was made evident that the purpose of the meeting was to be fully accomplished and that Redwood City was still ready to all, if not more than, its share.

Early in the evening the big fire whistle at the Frank tannery began to sound the call for the meeting, blowing long single blasts at frequent intervals. Soon this was taken up by the alarm bells at the several fire stations and reechoed by the blowing of automobile sirens from all parts of the city. Promptly at the appointed time people began to gather and soon after the opening of the doors every seat in the theatre was occupied.

Lack of patriotism and enthusiasm there was none from the start, but had there been the splendid program provided by those in charge of the meeting would soon have supplied the deficiency. Not alone were there speeches full of enthusiasm by men fully alive to the needs of the day and awake to the call of duty, but there were songs well calculated to rouse the spirit of patriotism in the most latent breast.

Promptly at the appointed hour the immense audience was called to order by Douglas S. Watson, who in a short but well timed address stated the object of the meeting. In doing his he urged that every one should stand ready to "do his bit," either as a soldier or as his financial backer. Following the address the audience rose to its feet and joined in the singing of "America" with spirit and enthusiasm.

Miss Mildred Lamb with a chorus from the Redwood Stick Company opened the program with a splendid vocal solo, singing "God Bye Broadway, Hello France". This served to put the gathering fully in accord with the spirit of the occasion, both music and words breathing the call of the day.

When the echoes of this spirited song had died away, two squads of soldiers of the Eighth Infantry from Camp Fremont, under the command of a sergeant marched upon the stage as an escort to Major Jens Brugge, U. S. A., military instructor at Stanford University, the speaker of the evening.

Major Brugge delivered a splendid address on the Duties of Citizenship.

Miss Kate Wolfenden then read "Redwood City's Roll of Honor." This consisted of the names of the 73 young men of Redwood City who have responded to the President's call to arms.

Miss Lamb and chorus then sang "Send Me Away With a Smile", another war song, rendered with splendid spirit. The singing of "Over There," a Liberty Bond song, concluded this portion of the program and cleared the way for the serious business of the evening, the recording of the subscriptions of the evening.

Taking charge of this portion of the program, Ed. T. McGettigan opened the movement with a strong address on the "Liberty Bond, dwelling upon the duty of every citizen to respond to the country's need for immediate financial support and urging the citizens of Redwood City to respond to the call of duty. At the close of the address, Mr. McGettigan, assisted by C. G. Landesholt, J. D. Hedge, Charles W. Hesler, D. R.

Stafford, Mark E. Ryan and Wm. Gray, went among the audience receiving and recording subscriptions to the Liberty Loan bonds. These same in large amounts and small amounts, but came rapidly and with manifestation of the spirit which was behind them. As each subscription was made the amount was called out and was tabulated by C. W. McCracken of the First National bank, who with an adding machine occupied a place on the stage. Thus the audience was kept informed of the result of the work. When the canvass had been completed the adding machine indicated a total of $136,800 as the subscription of the meeting.

Among the larger corporation subscriptions were: First National Bank, $25,000; Bank of Italy, $25,000; Frank Tanning Company, $20,000; Southern Pacific Railway Company, $8,000. Individual subscriptions, which will be announced later, varied in amounts from $5,000 down to $50.

The heartfelt sympathy of the whole state goes out to M. H. De Young, editor and proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle in the loss of his devoted wife. She was a noble Christian woman whose pure life and good deeds will live after her. Mrs. De Young was born in San Francisco and her life was devoted to an untiring work in her district. Her works are known, her charity was boundless. Long will her memory be cherished and her name be honored among Christian people.

The employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company who are soon to go out on a strike for an increase in wages have the sympathy of the public. It is known that the women operators are considerably under paid, in fact they are not given enough pay to keep body and soul together. The company is a soulless, greedy corporation that would wring the very blood from its employees in order to create big dividends for its stockholders.

Without doubt the automobile has added much to the convenience of humanity. Its means of long sustained and rapid transit has brought with it additional facilities for both business and pleasure. But, as is usually the case, humanity has been called upon to pay the penalty of this added convenience.

With the increased rapidity of travel has naturally come an increased risk of life and limb. This is to be expected and to some extent is unavoidable. But the toll exacted is far too large—far too many human lives have been sacrificed. This is due to many causes, some of which should be easily controlled.

Unquestionably one of the most flagrant causes of unnecessary deaths is the driving of automobiles by persons under the influence of liquor. An intoxicated man is a menace in any capacity, but in charge of one of these rapidly moving machines he constitutes an unusual source of danger.

The law provides a means of eliminating this greatest of dangers to life and limb. Officers to whom the enforcement of the law is entrusted, for the safety of the public, must resort to more extreme measures for its enforcement. Violators of this law must not be let go with the insignificant penalty of a fine. Severe measures of imprisonment is the only adequate penalty, the only safe deterrent.

Public safety, however, demands that we should go even further than this. The man found guilty of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, should be forever denied the opportunity to again risk life in the same direction. He should be denied the right to drive a machine, not for a limited time, but permanently.

HALFMOON BAY NOTES

Toney Joseph, John A. Bettencourt and M. S. Bettencourt, delegates, accompanied by Joseph Francis, Frank Cunha and wife, Manuel Lewis and Miss Rosa Cunha have returned from Modesto, where they attended the State Convention of the U. P. E. C.

Letters have been received from John J. Gomes, who is a member of the aviation corp that he is in England receiving his final instructions before taking the air some where in France. He is a native of this place.

Mrs. F. B. LaCrosse writes from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., that she is enjoying her stay there very much. Capt. LaCrosse is with a division of the signal corps. About 30,000 are stationed at Fort Oglethorpe.

Charles Mansfield of Mountain View formerly a resident of Halfmoon Bay spent a day in town this week and looked up old acquaintances.

R. Bonzagni of San Jose was a guest of the Miramontes family Tuesday. He is a distant relative of Mrs. Miramontes and they had not met in twenty-seven years. When they last saw each other they were aboard a ship bound from Italy to America.

Mrs. J. M. Frances was tendered a birthday surprise party at her home last Thursday night. A very agreeable time was spent by the assembled guests who were right royally entertained and did not depart until a late hour. We join with the many friends of Mrs. Francis in wishing her many more happy birthday anniversaries.

Jim Mosolino, Andy Gilcrest, Rommy Johnston and Supervisor J. M. Francis started out for Los Banos on Monday last to shoot ducks. They found the birds scarce and rather shy and as a result the bags were not very heavy.

Doctor J. S. Thomas has been very ill the last two weeks, on account of which there were no services in Montara, Paraltone and Moss Beach churches and his trip to Los Angeles to attend the Presbyterian Synod had to be given up. The community sympathizes with our good pastor and wishes him a speedy recovery.

The meeting begins at 7:30.

FORUM, BAPTIST CHURCH

Warden Johnson missed his train connections in San Francisco Sunday evening, and so disappointed the forum audience. In his place Pastor Parker spoke on the true mission of the church in the world, taking as his words to his disciples just before he left the earth. "As the Father hath sent me, even so send I you." He first defined the church as a company of regenerated people living the pure life separated from the wickedness of the world about them, and the world in which they are sent as people living in darkness with a nature in enmity against God. To this selfish world Jesus Christ sent his disciples with a gospel of love to help people up to God and better things, both as related to this life and the life to come.

Following the example of Christ, the church today must minister material things as well as in spiritual things. The speaker discussed only the relation of the activities of the church to things of this life the home life, social life and commercial life.

The church must produce a better life and thus produce a heritage of character. The church must purify social life, establishing standards of moral rectitude and make it possible for young men and women to be pure and yet popular. Then, also, the church must carry her activities into the commercial life, making her influence felt in both business and politics. This is to be accomplished by the individual members of the church carrying on in their lives the teachings of the Master.

Miss Crowell sang a beautiful solo.

CAPITOL MARKET

CHOICE MEATS

To Please the Palate

It is our aim in serving meat—to retain the fine flavor Nature bestows, not to let it go to waste, as some meatshops do. Without prolonging this true tale, it may be set down for a fact that here is to be found a first-class place to purchase beef, mutton, ham, poultry and game, to give your table good credit with household and guest.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Redwood City as Seen Through Incidents Gathered Here and There

Rev. Father Landini, a former assistant pastor of Mount Carmel church, was here Tuesday calling on friends and bidding them farewell. He leaves in a few days for the front as a chaplain.

If you have watch trouble see watch doctor, George Peterson, 214 Main street, Sequoia Hotel Building, Redwood City.

Free Piano Exchange, 111 Kearney St., San Francisco. Pianos bought, sold, exchanged. Player pianos traded for pianos. Fine standard action player piano, $75 cash delivers it to your home. See Shottler, 213 Main St., Redwood City for particulars. Lorna Donaldson of Palo Alto has taken charge of the violin classes of Charles Walther in Redwood, he having gone to Camp Lewis. A special feature of Miss Donaldson's work is student recitals. Miss Donaldson is a graduate of the College of the Pacific, Stanford University. She teaches music in the school department of San Jose.

A Roll of Honor of the young men, members and friends of the Congregational church, who have gone to war, has been prepared by Prof. Otis Carrington and can be seen on the floor of the church. If any family would like the name of their son on this Roll, call Redwood 65. These men will be remembered in prayer at each service.

All are cordially invited to attend a free lecture on Christian Science in Masonic Temple hall, corner of E. and Tilton Avenue, San Mateo, on Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Charles I. Ohrenstein, C. S. B., member of the board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass., will deliver the address.

Elmer L. La Dieu, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. La Dieu of this city, has successfully passed the government examination for Marine Engineers and has gone out on the Maui for Honolulu as an assistant. His brother Clarence left for the East this week to take the steamship Itasca to New York, a former German interned ship, but now a government vessel. Young La Dieu is surely "doing his bit."

P. P. Chamberlain, A. D. Walsh, J. P. Johnston and Cornelius Cullen, left on Tuesday for Weymouth Inn, Eel river, near Eureka, Humboldt county, on a fishing trip. The party usually makes this trip annually and return with tales of big catches of trout and salmon. Their numerous friends in Redwood City are anxiously awaiting their return. Two weeks when fish will be on the menu of many tables. All are expert anglers.

Mr. Peterson of Portola with a friend has leased the old Germania hall, which they are fitting up and in a short time will be opened as a cabaret. It will be known as the Germania Hall Recreation Center. The new proprietors are to spend several hundred dollars in the interior to make it one of the most attractive resorts in town. A marquee entrance will be erected. Germania hall was the first dancing pavilion established in the county and in days gone by it was the scene for dance goers and pleasure seekers. It will again be the scene of many pleasure parties.

The directors, Messrs. H. Lamb and Frank Thompson, of the Wednesday Social Club, announce some added enjoyment in the music line at their dance next Wednesday night, Oct. 31st. These two gentlemen and their assistants intend making this once-a-week affair on a par with their best previous efforts.

Misses Viola, Mildred and Hazel Lamb entertained a number of officers and enlisted men of Camp Fremont at their beautiful home on Jefferson street last Tuesday evening. Dancing was the order of the evening. The sumptuous supper served by the young ladies was the feature of the evening.

The management of the New Redwood City theatre has kindly donated the use of the theatre to the Woman's Relief Corps for Friday afternoon and evening of November 2nd. The proceeds of both performances will be given to the corps. Manager Belasco has arranged to show the very best pictures on those occasions. The ladies feel grateful to the genial HEWSON WANTS ACCOUNTING

OF BRITANN ADMINISTRATORS

Ernest W. Hewson, through his attorneys Ross & Ross, has filed a petition in the superior court asking that F. E. Kendall, as special administrator of the estate of N. J. Brittan, to file an accounting. The regular co-executors of the estate, Carmelia B. Kendall and Belle J. Moore, are also requested to file an account. Kendall was appointed special administrator of the estate of the late N. J. Brittan on June 6, 1912 and the regular co-executors the following September. N. J. Brittan died on May 27, 1912. No account has been filed since the appointment of the special administrator and the executors. Judge Buck on Wednesday issued a citation to the parties to file their respective accounts before Thursday, November 1st, 1917. Ernest W. Hewson is the surviving husband of Natalie T. Brittan Hewson, one of the heirs of the estate. She died in 1914 and leaves her husband left two minor children. The estate is appraised at $433,000. It is heavily encumbered.

STRENUOUS SPORT MARKS
DUCK HUNTER'S BIRTHDAY

"Claude Fox, author of 'Duck Hunting Reminiscences', appearing in this paper, and which will be continued in its next issue, celebrated his fifty-second birthday by arising at two o'clock a. m. last Sunday morning, rowing ten miles across the bay in a small scull boat and returning at noon with fifteen of the finest sprig and spoonbill an epicure would wish to cast his eye on. Ducks are not plentiful as yet, and the only way to insure a mess is to lay off the Alvarado marsh when the grain feed birds from the preserves are driven to the quiet waters of the bay for protection from the incessant bombardment which begins at daybreak in shore.

Fox, however, does not advise the younger generation of duck hunters to attempt this feat until they become somewhat expert on weather conditions, as the north wind sweeps down the channel of the bay at times without a moments warning, and it takes a man of experience, with a cool head and the exercise of quick judgment to reach home safely.

ESTATE EQUALLY DIVIDED
BETWEEN TWO CHILDREN

Attorneys Ross & Ross have filed the last will and testament of Christian J. Hynding in the county clerk's office. The instrument is dated January 10, 1916 and the subscribing witnesses are George C. Ross and Lee T. Ross. By its terms all the property left by decedent is bequeathed in equal shares to the two children Andrew Hynding of South San Francisco and Mrs. Cecelia Hynding Graves of Rochester, New York. Andrew Hynding is named executor to serve without bonds. He is given power to sell and dispose of the real and personal property without an order from the court. The estate consists of realty in Redwood City and South San Francisco. Andrew Hynding has applied for letters testamentary. The estate is in excess of $10,000.
